Set-tin' up the vol-ley-ball and light-in' up the grill; we have-n't had a thing to eat but Din-ner bell is ring-in', eve-ry - bod-y grab a plate. My mouth is sal-i-vat-in', ba-by, Holdon, wait a min-ute, who's that com-in' down the line? "Real-ly great to see you!," Dan-iel

8

now I think we will. Dan-iel's kind of scraw-ny but I guess he'll have to do, 'cause I can hard-ly wait! Come on feet, get mov-in', it's a race to get in line, 'cause says, "You're just in time!" An an-gel sent from heav-en and he's head-ed right for me. He's he's the hon-ored guest here at the li-on's bar-be-que. And there'll be here they come with Dan-iel. O-pen up it's din-ner time. And there'll be lock-in' up my jaws and now he's thrown a-way the key. There'll be NO

Refrain
